MM BGIMS Best Practices

Best Practice 1: Balancing Academic and Extracurricular Activities

- Objectives: MM BGIMS prioritizes holistic development, emphasizing the balance between academics and extracurricular for personal growth.
- Context: Recognizing education beyond textbooks, the institution integrates planned activities into the academic calendar to enhance soft skills and leadership qualities.
- Practice: Balancing academics with extracurricular pursuits mitigates stress, fostering well-being. Events like MAGMA Sports Event 2023 and CSR activities showcase student talents.
- Evidence: Successful participation in events like MAGMA Sports and CSR activities, symbolized by Kalash Yatra and tree planting.

Best Practice 2: Teaching Beyond Specialization

- Objectives: MM BGIMS promotes an interdisciplinary approach, breaking down silos of knowledge in management education.
- Context: Inspired by the University of Mumbai, the institute aims to enrich faculty knowledge and improve student understanding through a broader teaching approach.
- Practice: Faculty teach beyond their expertise, with subjects allocated through collaborative discussions. Regular updates and student feedback influence teaching methods.
- Evidence: Faculty enrichment observed, with success in eligibility tests and Ph.D. entrance exams. Interdisciplinary exposure benefits student understanding and practical application of management concepts.
- Challenges: Faculty resistance and technical subject allotment addressed by the Director's discretion. Emphasis on proactive learning and collaboration minimizes resource requirements.
